

Big Chill Craft Fair Application

10am – 4pm Saturday, December 14th, 2013
Mayo Street Arts – 10 Mayo Street, Portland

Thank you for your interest in the 2013 Big Chill craft fair! We are looking for artists, crafters and vintage vendors to fill the main hall at Mayo Street Arts for a day of locally handmade and homegrown holiday shopping. This year our downstairs artist's studio space will feature make-your-own crafts for kiddos, making this an event that is fun for the whole family.

The Big Chill is in its third year and offers a unique shopping experience in an alternative arts space. Your table may be stationed under a big, stained glass window or on the main stage! The concessions stand will be open during the event and while we do not sell red wine during the fair (stain hazard!) beer and white wine will be available to shoppers over age 21.

In the past we have featured two levels (our main hall and the downstairs artist studio space) of crafters and vendors, but this year we will be converting the downstairs space in to a crafting paradise for young and young at heart.

While The Big Chill is a very small, DIY craft fair we will be using our extensive mailing list and community connections to get the word out about this event. We will also be featuring a beautifully illustrated poster from local artist and past intern Molly Steinmetz that will be screen printed and then customized by MSA interns, local artists, Big Chill vendors (if you'd like) and anyone who'd like to participate. These will be hung up in Portland and surrounding communities to drum up even more excitement! Please email Audrey (contact information below) if you would like to help paint or distribute posters.

Please fill out all information on the following page in full and mail with vendor fee check ($60) to Mayo Street Arts ATTN: Big Chill, 10 Mayo Street, Portland, ME 04101.
